Nothing, I Did Nothing Today!

When a child comes home
 At the end of the day,
 The questions they're asked
 As they scurry to play,
 So, "Tell me, what did you do today?"
 And they answer they give
 Makes you sigh with dismay!
 "Nothing, I did nothing today."
 Perhaps nothing means that I played a new game,
 Or finally learned how to write my whole name

Maybe I painted a picture of yellow and blue,
 Or heard a story about a kangaroo.
 Maybe I read a book to my friend
 And hoped that their clapping would never end.
 Maybe I helped the teacher today,
 Or went out on the playground to play,
 Maybe today was the very first time
 That my scissors followed a dotted line.
 Maybe I went to the library and computers upstairs

And found a special friend in there.
 And maybe the Jesus song that was new
 Will comfort me my whole life through.
 But when you're little your heart has wings
 "Nothing", can mean so many things!
