INTRODUCTION TO LANGUAGE ARTS CURRICULUM GUIDE

During the 2009-2010 school year a Language Arts Curriculum Review Committee was established. The members of the committee were chosen from the Language Arts teachers in the Kettle Moraine Lutheran Federation of Schools (KMLFS). The task of this committee was to develop a Language Arts curriculum that will provide the KMLFS with a unified plan of development for our K-12 students. This is intended to be a working document that will be updated and changed as needed.

In the KMLFS Academic Standards for Language Arts, you will find headings for the six content areas in Language Arts: Reading and Literature, Writing, Oral Language, Language, Media & Technology, and Research & Inquiry. Under each of these content areas you will see the Content Standard Rationale for Study and Performance Standards to be achieved by the end of Fourth Grade and Eighth Grade. We also included the Content Standards Rationale listed by grade level from Kindergarten through Eighth Grade. It is important for our teachers to compare, evaluate, and communicate what is being taught with the desired Content Standards for the State of Wisconsin and the KMLFS. This best prepares our students in the Federation for high school and college.

The KMLFS Academic Standards for Language Arts are similar in form and substance to the Wisconsin Model Academic Standards for English Language Arts. The purpose for this is two-fold: 1) With a scholastic and professional source available, the committee had no desire to “reinvent the wheel.” 2) The committee also felt that by maintaining the form similar to that of the Department of Public Instruction; prospective families, current students’ families, and teachers can easily compare and contrast the academic standards in KMLF schools to that of the public schools. In such a format it will be clear that our KMLF schools teach all the content of our public schools, yet we teach that content in the light of God’s Word.

Committee Members: Dave Deibert, Kate Schafer, Micah Nelson, Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School

Cathy Wilk, Good Shepherd, West Bend

Leslie Granberg, Bethlehem, Menomonee Falls

Chairman James Brohn, Morning Star, Jackson

Philosophy

The KML Federation schools exist to educate, encourage, and equip students for life and for eternity. The study of language arts is a way to communicate both orally and in writing the good news of our Savior Jesus Christ. Using a wide variety of tools, teachers can guide students in developing good reading, grammar, and writing skills to prepare them for daily service in God’s kingdom.

English Language Arts Curriculum

Kettle Moraine Lutheran

Federation of Schools

The subject matter of reading/language arts is necessary for students to develop the abilities and skills for life-long learning, growing and celebrating their faith life, and serving others according to the Gospel message.

Although Language Arts is divided into six sets of standards, these divisions, in the classroom and in practical use of the language, are artificial. To use media, one must read or listen. To write, one must acquire knowledge by reading, listening, and viewing. To do research, one must read. To communicate in any form, one must know how the language works. Most performance standards expect students to achieve a level of proficiency in more than one content standard. Moreover, since all communication has content, the language arts standards are closely connected to the academic standards in other subjects.

Standard A. Reading/Literature

Students will read and respond to a wide range of writing to build an understanding of written materials, of themselves, of others, and of their Christian perspective.

Standard B. Writing

Students will write clearly and effectively to share information and knowledge, to influence and persuade, to create and entertain, while communicating the truths of God's Word.

Standard C. Oral Language

Students will listen to understand and will speak clearly and effectively for diverse purposes, including sharing the truths of God's Word.

Standard D. Language

Students will apply their knowledge of the nature, grammar, and variation of American English.

Standard E. Media and Technology

Students will use media and technology critically and creatively to obtain, organize, prepare and share information; to influence and persuade; to entertain and be entertained and to communicate the truths of God's Word.

Standard F. Research and Inquiry

Students will locate and communicate information from a variety of print and non-print materials.

Grade 4 & 8 EXIT LEVEL ENGLISH/

LANGUAGE ARTS PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

Goal A Content Standard: Reading/Literature

---

Students in the KML Federation schools will read and respond to a wide range of writing to build an understanding of written materials, of themselves, of others, and of their Christian perspective.

FOURTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Four, students will:

- A.4.1 Use effective reading strategies to achieve their purposes in reading.
  - a. Use a variety of strategies and word recognition skills, including rereading, finding context clues, applying their knowledge of letter-sound relationships, and analyzing word structures.
  - b. Infer the meaning of unfamiliar words in the context of a passage by examining known words, phrases and structures.
  - c. Demonstrate phonemic awareness by using letter/sound relationships as aids to pronouncing and understanding unfamiliar words and text.
  - d. Comprehend reading by using strategies such as activating prior knowledge, establishing purpose, self-correcting and self-monitoring, rereading, making predictions, finding context clues, developing visual images, applying knowledge of text structures, and adjusting reading rate according to purpose and difficulty.
  - e. Read aloud with age-appropriate fluency, accuracy, and expression.
  - f. Discern how written texts and accompanying illustrations connect to convey meaning.
  - g. Identify and use organizational features of texts, such as headings, paragraphs, and format, to improve understanding.
  - h. Identify a purpose for reading, such as gaining information, learning about a viewpoint, and appreciating literature.
- A.4.2 Read, interpret, and critically analyze literature.
  - a. Recognize and recall elements and details of story structure, such as sequence of events, character, plot, and setting, in order to reflect on meaning.
  - b. Draw upon a reservoir of reading materials, including fairy tales, fables, and narratives from the United States and cultures worldwide, to understand plots, make predictions, and relate reading to prior knowledge and experience.
  - c. Summarize ideas drawn from stories, identifying cause-and-effect relationships, interpreting events and ideas, and connecting different works to each other and to real-life experiences.

- d. Extend the literal meaning of a text by making inferences, and evaluate the significance and validity of texts in light of prior knowledge and experience.
- A.4.3 Read and discuss literary and nonliterary texts in order to understand human experience.
  - a. Demonstrate the ability to integrate general knowledge about the world and familiarity with literary and nonliterary texts when reflecting upon life's experiences.
  - b. Identify and summarize main ideas and key points from literature, informational texts, and other print and non-print sources.
  - c. Distinguish fiction from nonfiction, realistic fiction from fantasy, biography from autobiography, and poetry from prose.
  - d. Select a variety of materials to read for discovery, appreciation, and enjoyment, summarize the readings, and connect them to prior knowledge and experience.
- A.4.4 Read to acquire information.
  - a. Summarize key details of informational texts, connecting new information to prior knowledge.
  - b. Identify a topic of interest then seek information by investigating available text resources.

EIGHTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Eight, students will:

- A.8.1 Use effective reading strategies to achieve their purposes in reading.
  - a. Use knowledge of sentence and word structure, word origins, visual images, and context clues to understand unfamiliar words and clarify passages of text.
  - b. Use knowledge of the visual features of texts, such as headings and bold face print, and structures of texts, such as chronology and cause-and-effect, as aids to comprehension.
  - c. Establish purposeful reading and writing habits by using texts to find information, gain understanding of diverse viewpoints, make decisions, and enjoy the experience of reading.
  - d. Select, summarize, paraphrase, analyze, and evaluate, orally and in writing, passages of texts chosen for specific purposes.
- A.8.2 Read, interpret, and critically analyze literature.
  - a. Identify the defining features and structure of literary texts, such as conflict, representation of character, and point of view.
  - b. Analyze the effect of characters, plot, setting, language, topic, style, purpose, and point of view on the overall impact of literature.
  - c. Draw on a broad base of knowledge about the genres of literature, such as the structure and conventions of essays, epics, fables, myths, plays, poems, short stories, and novels, when interpreting the meaning of a literary work.
  - d. Develop criteria to evaluate literary merit and explain critical opinions about a text, either informally in conversation or formally in a well-organized speech or essay.
- A.8.3 Read and discuss literary and nonliterary texts in order to understand human experience.
  - a. Provide interpretive responses, orally and in writing, to literary and nonliterary texts representing the diversity of American cultural heritage and cultures of the world.

- b. Identify common historical, social, and cultural themes and issues in literary works and selected passages.
  - c. Draw on a broad base of knowledge about the themes, ideas, and insights found in classical literature while reading, interpreting, and reflecting on contemporary texts.
  - d. Evaluate the themes and main ideas of a work considering its audience and purpose.
- A.8.4 Read to acquire information.
- a. Interpret and use technical resources such as charts, tables, travel schedules, timelines, and manuals.
  - b. Compare, contrast, and evaluate the relative accuracy and usefulness of information from different sources.
  - c. Identify and explain information, main ideas, and organization found in a variety of informational passages.
  - d. Distinguish between the facts found in documents, narratives, charts, maps, tables and other sources and the generalizations and interpretations that are drawn from them.

Goal B Content Standard: Writing

Students in the KML Federation will write clearly and effectively to share information and knowledge, to influence and persuade, to create and entertain, while communicating the truths of God’s Word.

FOURTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Four, students will:

- B.4.1 Create or produce writing to communicate with different audiences for a variety of purposes.
- a. Write nonfiction and technical pieces (summaries, messages, informational essays, basic directions, instructions, simple reports) that convey essential details and facts and provide accurate representations of events and sequences.
  - b. Write expressive pieces in response to reading, viewing, and life experiences (narratives, reflections, and letters) employing descriptive detail and a personal voice.
  - c. Write creative pieces (poetry, fiction, and plays) employing basic aesthetic principles appropriate to each genre.
  - d. Write in a variety of situations (timed and untimed, at school and at home) and adapt strategies, such as revision and the use of reference materials, to the situation.
  - e. Use a variety of writing technologies, including pen and paper as well as computers.
  - f. Write for a variety of readers, including peers, teachers, and other adults, adapting content, style, and structure to audience and situation.
- B.4.2 Plan, revise, edit, and publish clear and effective writing.
- a. Produce multiple drafts, including finished pieces, that demonstrate the capacity to generate, focus, and organize ideas and to revise the language, organization, and content of successive drafts in order to fulfill a specific purpose for communicating with a specific audience.
  - b. Explain the extent and reasons for revision in conference with a teacher.

- c. Given a writing assignment to be completed in a limited amount of time, produce a well developed, well organized, and effective response in correct English and an appropriate voice.
- B.4.3 Understand the function of various forms, structures, and punctuation marks of standard American English and use them appropriately in communications.
  - a. Understand and use parts of speech effectively, including nouns, pronouns, adjectives, and adverbs.
  - b. Employ principles of agreement related to number, gender, and case.
  - c. Capitalize proper nouns, titles, and initial words of sentences.
  - d. Use punctuation marks and conjunctions, as appropriate, to separate sentences and connect independent clauses.
  - e. Use commas correctly to punctuate appositives and lists.
  - f. Spell frequently used words correctly.
  - g. Use word order and punctuation marks to distinguish statements, questions, exclamations, and commands.

EIGHTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Eight, students will:

- B.8.1 Create or produce writing to communicate with different audiences for a variety of purposes.
  - a. Write a coherent and complete expository piece, with sufficient detail to fulfill its purpose, sufficient evidence to support its assertions, language appropriate for its intended audience, and organization achieved through clear coordination and substantiation of ideas.
  - b. Write a persuasive piece (such as a letter to a specific person or a script promoting a particular product) that includes a clear position, a discernible tone, and a coherent argument with reliable evidence.
  - c. Write a narrative based on experience that uses descriptive language and detail effectively, presents a sequence of events, and reveals a theme.
  - d. Write clear and pertinent responses to verbal or visual material that communicate, explain, and interpret the reading or viewing experience to a specific audience.
  - e. Write creative fiction that includes major and minor characters, a coherent plot, effective imagery, descriptive language, and concrete detail.
  - f. Write in a variety of situations (during an exam, in a computer lab) and adapt strategies, such as revision, technology, and the use of reference materials, to the situation.
  - g. Use a variety of writing technologies including pen and paper as well as computers.
  - h. Write for a variety of readers, including peers, teachers, and other adults, adapting content, style, and structure to audience and situation.
- B.8.2 Plan, revise, edit, and publish clear and effective writing.
  - a. Produce multiple drafts, including finished pieces, that demonstrate the capacity to generate, focus, and organize ideas and to revise the language, organization, content,

- and tone of successive drafts in order to fulfill a specific purpose for communicating with a specific audience.
- b. Identify questions and strategies for improving drafts in writing conferences with a teacher.
  - c. Given a writing assignment to be completed in a limited amount of time, produce a well-developed, well-organized, and effective response in correct English and an appropriate voice.
- B.8.3 Understand the function of various forms, structures, and punctuation marks of standard American English and use them appropriately in communications.
- a. Understand the function of words, phrases, and clauses in a sentence and use them effectively, including coordinate and subordinate conjunctions, relative pronouns, and comparative adjectives.
  - b. Use correct tenses to indicate the relative order of events.
  - c. Understand and employ principles of agreement, including subject-verb, pronoun-noun, and preposition-pronoun.
  - d. Punctuate compound, complex, and compound-complex sentences correctly.
  - e. Employ the conventions of capitalization.
  - f. Spell frequently used words correctly and use effective strategies for spelling unfamiliar words.

Goal C Content Standard: Oral Language

Students in the KML Federation schools will listen to understand and will speak clearly and effectively for diverse purposes, including sharing the truths of God’s Word.

FOURTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Four, students will:

- C.4.1 Orally communicate information, opinions, and ideas effectively to different audiences for a variety of purposes.
- a. Identify and discuss criteria for effective oral presentations, including such factors as eye contact, projection, tone, volume, rate, and articulation.
  - b. Read aloud effectively from previously-read material.
  - c. Speaking from notes or a brief outline, communicate precise information and accurate instructions in clearly organized and sequenced detail.
  - d. Present autobiographical or fictional stories that recount events to large and small audiences.
  - e. Participate in group readings, such as choral, echo, and shadow reading.
  - f. Perform dramatic readings and presentations.
  - g. Distinguish between fact and opinion and provide evidence to support opinions.
- C.4.2 Listen to and comprehend oral communications.
- a. Follow basic directions.
  - b. Identify and summarize key points of a story or discussion.
  - c. Retell stories and reports of events in proper sequence.

- d. Follow sequence in plot and character development, predict outcomes, and draw conclusions.
  - e. Recall the content of stories after hearing them, relate the content to prior knowledge, and answer various types of factual and interpretive questions about the stories.
  - f. Distinguish fact from fantasy and fact from opinion.
  - g. Understand increasingly complex sentence structures.
  - h. Understand a variety of word structures and forms, such as affixes, roots, homonyms, antonyms, synonyms, and word analogies.
- C.4.3 Participate effectively in whole classroom discussions as well as small groups.
- a. Volunteer relevant information, ask relevant questions, and answer questions directly.
  - b. Use appropriate eye contact and other nonverbal cues.

- e. Accept and use helpful criticism.
- f. Establish and maintain an open mind when listening to others' ideas and opinions.
- g. Summarize the main points of a discussion, orally and in writing, specifying areas of agreement and disagreement and paraphrasing contributions. (ex. Note-taking – see reference)
- h. Display and maintain facial expressions, body language, and other response cues that indicate respect for the speaker and attention to the discussion.
- i. Attend to the content of discussion rather than the speaker.
- j. Participate in discussion without dominating.
- k. Distinguish between supported and unsupported statements.

Goal D Content Standard: Language

Students in the KML Federation schools will apply their knowledge of the nature, grammar, and variation of American English.

FOURTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Four, students will:

D.4.1 Develop their vocabulary of words, phrases, and idioms as a means of improving communication.

- a. Consult dictionaries, thesauruses, and other resources to find and compare definitions, choose among synonyms, and spell words correctly.
- b. Use their knowledge of roots, prefixes, and suffixes to interpret and convey the meaning of words.
- c. Identify common figures of speech and use them appropriately.

D.4.2 Recognize and interpret various uses and adaptations of language in social, cultural, regional, and professional situations, and learn to be flexible and responsive in their use of English.

- a. Identify various styles and purposes of oral and written language and learn to communicate effectively in commonly occurring situations.
- b. Describe and give examples of variations in American English that appear in different social, cultural, regional, and professional environments.

EIGHTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Eight, students will:

- D.8.1 Develop their vocabulary and ability to use words, phrases, idioms, and various grammatical structures as a means of improving communication.
  - a. Consult dictionaries, thesauruses, handbooks, and grammar texts when choosing words, phrases, and expressions for use in oral and written presentations.
  - b. Explain how writers and speakers choose words and use figurative language such as similes, metaphors, personification, hyperbole, and allusion to achieve specific effects.
  - c. Choose words purposefully and evaluate the use of words in communications designed to inform, explain, and persuade.
- D.8.2 Recognize and interpret various uses and adaptations of language in social, cultural, regional, and professional situations, and learn to be flexible and responsive in their use of English.
  - a. Describe how American English is used in various public and private contexts, such as school, home, and work.
  - b. Make appropriate choices when speaking and writing, such as formal or informal language, considering the purpose and context of the communication.
  - c. Evaluate how audience and context affect the selection and use of words and phrases, including technical terms, slang, and jargon.

Goal E Content Standard: Media and Technology

Students in the KML Federation schools will use media and technology critically and creatively to obtain, organize, prepare and share information; to influence and persuade; to entertain and be entertained and to communicate the truths of God’s Word.

FOURTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Four, students will:

- E.4.1 Use computers to acquire, organize, analyze, and communicate information.
  - a. Operate common computer hardware and software.
  - b. Use basic word-processing, graphics, and drawing programs.
  - c. Create, store, and retrieve electronic files.
  - d. Access information using electronic reference resources, such as library catalog, encyclopedias, almanacs, and indexes.
  - e. Generate, send, and retrieve electronic messages.
- E.4.2 Make informed judgments about media and products.
  - a. Identify the intent or appeal behind products and messages promoted via media.
  - b. Recognize basic propaganda techniques.
  - c. Identify images and symbols central to particular messages.
- E.4.3 Create products appropriate to audience and purpose.

- a. Write news articles appropriate for familiar media.
  - b. Create simple advertising messages and graphics appropriate for familiar media.
  - c. Prepare, perform, and tape simple radio and television scripts.
  - d. Prepare and perform school announcements and program scripts.
- E.4.4 Demonstrate a working knowledge of media production and distribution.
- a. Make distinctions between messages presented on radio, television, and in print.
  - b. Recognize how messages are adjusted for different audiences.
  - c. Identify sales approaches and techniques aimed at children.
- E.4.5 Analyze and edit media work as appropriate to audience and purpose.
- a. Generate and edit media work as appropriate to audience and purpose, sequencing the presentation effectively and adding or deleting information as necessary to achieve desired effects.
  - b. Provide feedback to (and receive it from) peers about the content, organization, and overall effect of media work.

EIGHTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Eight, students will:

- E.8.1 Use computers to acquire, organize, analyze, and communicate information.
- a. Demonstrate efficient word-processing skills.
  - b. Construct and use simple databases.
  - c. Use manuals and on-screen help in connection with computer applications.
  - d. Perform basic computer operations on various platforms.
  - e. Collect information from various on-line sources, such as web pages, news groups, and listservs.
- E.8.2 Make informed judgments about media and products.
- a. Recognize common structural features found in print and broadcast advertising.
  - b. Identify and explain the use of stereotypes and biases evident in various media.
  - c. Compare the effect of particular symbols and images seen in various media.
  - d. Develop criteria for selecting or avoiding specific broadcast programs and periodicals.
- E.8.3 Create media products appropriate to audience and purpose.
- a. Write informational articles that target audiences of a variety of publications.
  - b. Use desktop publishing to produce products such as brochures and newsletters designed for particular organizations and audiences.
  - c. Create video and audiotapes designed for particular audiences.
- E.8.4 Demonstrate a working knowledge of media production and distribution.
- a. Plan a promotion or campaign that involves broadcast and print media production and distribution.
  - b. Analyze how messages may be affected by financial factors such as sponsorship.
  - c. Identify advertising strategies and techniques aimed at teenagers.
- E.8.5 Analyze and edit media work as appropriate to audience and purpose.
- a. Revise media productions by adding, deleting, and adjusting the sequence and arrangement of information, images, or other content as necessary to improve focus, clarity, or effect.

- b. Develop criteria for comprehensive feedback on the quality of media work and use it during production.

Goal F Content Standard: Research and Inquiry

Students in the KML Federation schools will locate and communicate information from a variety of print and non-print materials.

FOURTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Four, students will:

- F.4.1 Conduct research and inquiry on self-selected or assigned topics, issues, or problems and use an appropriate form to communicate their findings.
- a. Propose research by formulating initial questions, narrowing the focus of a topic, identifying prior knowledge, and developing a basic plan for gathering information.
  - b. Conduct research by identifying, locating, exploring, and effectively using multiple sources of information appropriate to the inquiry, including print, non-print, and electronic sources.
  - c. Recognize, record, organize, and acknowledge information pertinent to a project, accurately blending discoveries into answers.
  - d. Present the results of inquiry, reporting and commenting on the substance and process of learning, orally and in writing, using appropriate visual aids.

EIGHTH GRADE EXIT LEVEL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

By the end of grade Eight, students will:

- F.8.1 Conduct research and inquiry on self-selected or assigned topics, issues, or problems and use an appropriate form to communicate their findings.
- a. Formulate research questions and focus investigation on relevant and accessible sources of information.
  - b. Use multiple sources to identify and locate information pertinent to research including encyclopedias, almanacs, dictionaries, library catalogs, indexes to periodicals, and various electronic search engines.
  - c. Conduct interviews, field studies, and experiments and use specialized resources (such as almanacs, fact books, pamphlets, and technical manuals) when appropriate to an investigation.
  - d. Compile, organize, and evaluate information, taking notes that record and summarize what has been learned and extending the investigation to other sources.
  - e. Review and evaluate the usefulness of information gathered in an investigation.
  - f. Using Writer's Inc. as a guide, produce an organized written and oral report that presents and reflects on findings, draws sound conclusions, adheres to the conventions for preparing a manuscript, and gives proper credit to sources. SS, SC, IT
    - Use Bibme.org
    - See Reference on "What is Plagiarism?"

Note – Numeric order for the K-8 grade level goals listed in this document aligns with the WI State Academic Standards. Not all grades include each standard sub-category (as indicated by gaps in the numbering system). However, all K-4 goals and 5-8 goals are appropriately addressed by the end of fourth and eighth grades

These grade level performance standards are listed developmentally. However, each school is uniquely organized. Therefore, a specific grade level standard may not be addressed at the grade indicated, but will be addressed within a 4 year time span (K-4, 5-8).

Much of what we expect students to be able to do at the end of their formal education is introduced as early as kindergarten. Students listen, read, speak, write, use language, and enjoy literature at all levels and grades. The difficulty of the materials, the complexity of what students do with them, and the sophistication of their skills change as they grow older. For economy of space, knowledge and skills introduced as standards at the lower levels are not repeated as standards at the upper levels. In practice, teachers build on what students have already achieved at one level to help them meet higher standards at the next level.

Grade Level Performance Standards: Kindergarten

Within our kindergarten reading/language arts curriculum, students will:

GOAL A - READING/ LITERATURE

Read and respond to a wide range of writing to build an understanding of written materials, of themselves, of others, and of their Christian perspective.

- A.K.1. Use effective reading strategies to achieve their purposes in reading.
- a. Hear, say, and manipulate sounds including rhyming and blending.
  - b. Identify consonants and their common sounds.
  - c. Name all upper and lower case letters.
  - d. Recognize the difference between a letter and a word.
  - e. Demonstrate a beginning level of phonemic awareness.
    - 1) Hear rhymes.
    - 2) Blend sounds to make spoken words.
    - 3) Count sounds in spoken words.
    - 4) Identify beginning, middle, and final sounds in spoken words.
  - f. Demonstrate awareness of common signs, symbols and end marks such as periods and question marks.
  - g. Interpret simple graphs. SS, SC, MA
  - h. Recognize how written texts and accompanying illustrations connect to convey meaning.
- A.K.2. Read, interpret, and critically analyze literature.
- a. Recall details of a story including who, what, where, when and why.
  - b. Differentiate between make-believe and real life.
  - c. Predict what happens next in a story.
  - d. Relate their prior knowledge and experiences to a variety of readings such as fairy tales and stories.
  - e. Describe what a book is and how it works, including recognizing book parts such as cover, title page, front, back and how to turn a page.
  - f. Show how print runs from left to right and from the top to the bottom of a page.

NOTE TAKING SYSTEM

5 Methods

- The Cornell Method
- The Outline Method
- The Mapping Method
- The Charting Method
- The Sentence Method

THE CORNELL METHOD

The Cornell method provides a systematic format for condensing and organizing notes without laborious recopying. After writing the notes in the main space, use the left-hand space to label each idea and detail with a key word or "cue."

Method - Rule your paper with a 2 ½ inch margin on the left leaving a six-inch area on the right in which to make notes. During class, take down information in the six-inch area. When the instructor moves to a new point, skip a few lines. After class, complete phrases and sentences as much as possible. For every significant bit of information, write a cue in the left margin. To review, cover your notes with a card, leaving the cues exposed. Say the cue out loud, and then say as much as you can of the material underneath the card. When you have said as much as you can, move the card and see if what you said matches what is written. If you can say it, you know it.

Advantages - Organized and systematic for recording and reviewing notes. Easy format for pulling out major concept and ideas. Simple and efficient. Saves time and effort. "Do-it-right-in-the-first-place system."

Disadvantages - None

When to Use - In any lecture situation.

THE OUTLINING METHOD

Dash or indented outlining is usually best except for some science classes such as physics or math.

1. The information which is most general begins at the left with each more specific group of facts indented with spaces to the right.
2. The relationships between the different parts are carried out through indenting.
3. No numbers, letters, or Roman numerals are needed.

Method – Listening and then write in points in an organized pattern based on space indentation. Place major points farthest to the left. Indent each more specific point to the right. Levels of importance will be indicated by distance away from the major point. Indentation can be as simple as or as complex as labeling the indentations with Roman numerals or decimals. Markings are not necessary as space relationships will indicate the major/minor points.

Advantages – Well-organized system if done right. Outlining records content as well as relationships. It also reduces editing and is easy to review by turning main points into questions.

Disadvantages – Requires more thought in class for accurate organization. This system may not show relationships by sequence when needed. It doesn't lend to diversity of a review attach for maximum learning and question application. This system cannot be used if the lecture is too fast.

When to Use – The outline format can be used if the lecture is presented in outline organization. This may be either deductive (regular outline) or inductive (reverse outline where minor points start building to a major point). Use this format when there is enough time in the lecture to think about and make organization decisions when they are needed. This format can be most effective when your note taking skills are super and sharp and you can handle the outlining regardless of the note taking situation.

Example –

Extrasensory perception

- _ Definition: means of perceiving without use of sense organs.
  - _ three kinds –
    - _ telepathy: sending messages
    - _ clairvoyance: forecasting the future
    - _ psychokinesis: perceiving events external to situation
  - _ current status –
    - _ no current research to support or refute
    - _ few psychologists say impossible

THE MAPPING METHOD

Mapping is a method that uses comprehension/concentration skills and evolves in a note taking form which relates each fact or idea to every other fact or idea. Mapping is a graphic representation of the content of a lecture. It is a method that maximizes active participation, affords immediate knowledge as to its understanding, and emphasizes critical thinking.

Advantages – This format helps you to visually track your lecture regardless of conditions. Little thinking is needed and relationships can easily be seen. It is also easy to edit your notes by adding numbers, marks, and color coding. Review will call for you to restructure thought processes which will force you to check understanding. Review by covering lines for memory drill and relationships. Main points can be written on flash or note cards and pieced together into a table or larger structure at a later date.

Disadvantages – You may not hear changes in content from major points to facts.

When to Use – Use when the lecture content is heavy and well-organized. May also be used effectively when you have a guest lecturer and have no idea how the lecture is going to be presented.

Example –

THE CHARTING METHOD

If the lecture format is distinct (such as chronological), you may set up your paper by drawing columns and labeling appropriate headings in a table.

Method – Determine the categories to be covered in lecture. Set up your paper in advance by columns headed by these categories. As you listen to the lecture, record information (words, phrases, main ideas, etc.) into the appropriate category.

Advantages – Helps you track conversation and dialogues where you would normally be confused and lose out on relevant content. Reduces amount of writing necessary. Provides easy review mechanism for both memorization of facts and study of comparisons and relationships.

Disadvantages – Few disadvantages except learning how to use the system and locating the appropriate categories. You must be able to understand what's happening in the lecture.

When to Use – Test will focus on both facts and relationships. Content is heavy and presented fast. You want to reduce the amount of time you spend editing and reviewing at test time. You want to get an overview of the whole course on one big paper sequence.

Example – Chart format for a history class:

PERIOD	IMPORTANT PEOPLE	EVENTS	SIGNIFICANCE
1941-45	FDR	WWII	U.S.A.
			INVOLVEMENT

THE SENTENCE METHOD

Method – Write every new thought, fact or topic on a separate line, numbering as you progress.

Advantages – Slightly more organized than the paragraph. Gets more or all of the information. Thinking to tract content is still limited.

Disadvantages – Can't determine major/minor points from the numbered sequence. Difficult to edit without having to rewrite by clustering points which are related. Difficult to review unless editing cleans up relationship.

When to Use – Use when the lecture is somewhat organized, but heavy with content which comes fast. You can hear the different points, but you don't know how they fit together. The instructor tends to present in point fashion, but not in grouping such as “three related points.”

Example 1 –

A revolution is any occurrence that affects other aspects of life, such as economic life, social life, and so forth. Therefore revolutions cause change. (See page 29-30 in your text about this.)

- Sample Notes – Revolution – occurrence that affects other aspects of life: e.g., econ., socl. Etc. C.f. text, pp. 29-30

Example 2 –

Melville did not try to represent life as it really was. The language of Ahab, Starbuck, and Ishmael, for instance, was not that of real life.

- Sample Notes – Mel didn't repr. Life as was; e.g. lang. Of Ahab, etc. no of real life.

Example 3 –

At first, Freud tried conventional, physical methods of treatment such as giving baths, massages, rest cures, and similar aids. But when these failed he tried techniques of hypnosis that he had seen used by Jean-Martin Charcot. Finally, he borrowed an idea from Jean Breuer and used direct verbal communication to get an un-hypnotized patient to reveal unconscious thoughts.

- Sample Notes – Freud 1st – used phys. trtmnt; e.g., baths, etc. This fld. 2nd – used hypnosis (fr. Charcot) Finally – used vrb. commun. (fr. Breuer) – got unhypnop, patnt to reveal uncons. thoughts.
